

Wayne Pugh, MAI and Appraisal Institute Education Trust Board member presents Sandra Adomatis, SRA the Dr. William N. Kinnard, Jr. Award from the Appraisal Institute (August 2, 2012)

Sandra K. Adomatis, SRA of Punta Gorda, Florida received the highly prestigious Dr. William N. Kinnard, Jr. Award at the Appraisal Institute Conference in San Diego, CA. The Society of Real Estate Appraisers honored Dr. William N. Kinnard, Jr. by establishing this award. The purpose of the Kinnard award is to recognize professionalism in education by a worthy academic instructor or administrator, or an individual or a program that contributed to the education, knowledge, professionalism or development of the real estate appraisal profession.

The Appraisal Institute acknowledged Sandra's years of commitment to education through the Appraisal Institute. Sandra has enjoyed membership in the Appraisal Institute for 30 years. She has served as Chair of the National Demonstration Report Writing Committee, Vice Chair and Chair of the National Education Committee, Grader of exams for national courses and demonstration reports, Regional X Education Liaison, West Coast Florida Chapter President in 2009, Regional Representative, Chapter Director, and member of the local Chapter education committee. She is an instructor for Appraisal Institute seminars and courses.

Sandra is a national speaker on the topic of green valuation. She represents the Appraisal Institute at conferences such as the National Association of Home Builders, United States Green Building Council (USGBC), and various other groups around the United States.

The Appraisal Institute has a Valuation of Sustainable Buildings Professional Development Program with three courses to train appraisers on how to identify and value green and energy efficient properties. Sandra served on the development team for all these courses. She is currently working on another course for this program.

Sandra is the owner of Adomatis Appraisal Service of Punta Gorda, FL. where she is actively involved in valuing residential and commercial properties. She can be reached at 941-505-8783 or www.adomatisappraisalservice.com.
